NEW BOOKS PUBLISHED BY ISRAEL EXPLORATION SOCIETY

The Ancient Pottery of Israel and Its Neighbors from the Iron Age through the Hellenistic Period

Seymour Gitin (ed.)

Joseph Aviram, Amnon Ben-Tor, Ephraim Stern and Eli Yannai (editorial board)

These two volumes, published in 2015 by the Israel Exploration Society, the W.F. Albright Institute of Archaeological Research, the Israel Antiquities Authority and the American Schools of Oriental Research, offer a comprehensive corpus of ceramic forms and their typological development organized according to period, geographical region, and cultural tradition. The focus of each chapter is on the most characteristic pottery types and decorative motifs selected from a wide range of sites.

Unique in scope, this publication presents a wide range of ceramic types accompanied by specially prepared pottery plates and colour photos illustrating thousands of forms. A classic reference work, it will serve as an essential resource for archaeologists and other scholars and students of ancient Near Eastern studies. Volumes covering the Neolithic and Chalcolithic periods and Bronze Age are currently in preparation.

808 pages; 328 plates with 3,393 images; 34 colour photos illustrating 277 vessels; 27.6×21 cm; hard cover. ISBN 978-965-221-102-6. Price: $240 ($204 for IES members) + shipping: airmail to U.S. $46, airmail to Europe $28; surface mail to U.S. $17, surface mail to Europe $20

Eretz-Israel. Archaeological, Historical and Geographical Studies. Vol. 32. Joseph Naveh Volume

The 32nd volume of the Eretz-Israel series, published in 2016 by Israel Exploration Society, is dedicated to the memory of Professor Joseph Naveh, one of the great epigraphers of his generation, an expert of international standing in the field of West Semitic palaeography and a unique figure in the various branches of Aramaic epigraphy.

The volume includes 25 Hebrew articles (with summaries in English), 11 articles in English and two in French, all focusing upon Prof. Naveh's fields of interest.

260 pages; 27×21 cm; numerous illustrations; hard cover. ISBN 978-965-221-108-5. Price: $52 ($39 to IES members); shipping: airmail to the U.S. $29, to Europe $16; surface mail $12
